“ I have been wondering what happened to our patient, Mr. Ballard. We only took care of him a few times at LCI Radiation Therapy @ Pineville. I very much enjoyed meeting him and trying to help him.
My deepest condolences to the Ballard family.

“ If you ever had the chance to meet my grandpa, you know first hand how kind and considerate he truly was. He would do anything in his power to help you and teach you. He really had so much left to give to the world but he will forever be in our hearts and minds. We could never forget this wonderful man and all he's done for us all. I always loved how he encouraged me to draw with my chalk all over the driveway, how he would always make me potatoes on the grill when we came over or how he would pull the exercise trampoline out for me and my brother to jump on in the yard. I wish i had the opportunity to thank him for just being in my life and caring so much for all of us. He truly was the best grandpa you could ask for and he will be forever missed. Thank you pawpaw for always loving and caring for us. Rest well now and know we will be with you again someday. We love you.

“ JB was an awesome man, even though he was a Clemson fan. We'll never forget you John. We always had a great time visiting and the cookouts were great. You never had a bad thing to say about anyone. You were always friendly and welcomed anyone into your home. Tonya sure picked her a great man. Candice loved you so much as KP and Megan did too. Time will ease the pain some but we'll be sure to celebrate your life. Love you Papa John. Until we meet again

“ I remember going over for cookouts and him grilling out while me and my sister played with chalk on the sidewalk, throwing the ball to Sidney, I remember every time a Clemson game came on how happy he'd get cheering for his favourite team, how much he truly loved us all, you could never replace a man like him, he really did leave a big hole in mine and everyone else's life, but I know as he looks down on us, that he truly wants us to do good and succeed, he was a hard worker and never liked slacking, and so as hard as it may be, we have to push on for him, he will be one person I will never forget, I love you pawpaw
