“ Mike was a sweet man and friend. He always had a smile on his face and we helped each other as only neighbors can, in those little ways, like borrowing a tool or once he and Renea gave us a throw rug we really needed for our dog. Our dog was recovering from two knee surgeries and if he pushed himself up from a hardwood floor he could reinjure his knees. We'd tried smaller rugs and they sort of worked. Just a thoughtful man in general and hard worker. We were so sorry when their house burned down because we had seen some of his precious collections. He knew antiques well and I loved his bottle collection. He will be missed every day for the rest of our lives. He was a good friend and I cannot imagine how his family must feel. He was with his love and that should bring comfort to the rest of us. May angels walk with him and stay with Renea and the rest of his family.

“ My brother, Larry, sent me this news by text yesterday. I did not often see Mike outside of our collaborative projects, but as fellow Saggitarians we always found connection through our similar views on life and on how to live. I'm shocked. I'm disturbed. And I'm deeply saddened at the loss of this truly fine and gentle man.
