“ I had the pleasure of meeting Pat at traditions. She was so sweet and kind with a beautiful smile that made you feel special. She loved where we could see each other's balconies. She mentioned she enjoyed looking at my lights on the balcony. Now whenever I turn them on I think of a shining light reminding me of Pat. I will surely miss her. A special light gone out all too soon.

*We hadn't known each other long but as she said "we're going to be good friends " Wish she had called me sooner that night. My heart aches for her family!

Pat shared her kindness with many at Traditions. A smile to share and energy contagious. I am blessed to have known her even for a short time. She brought joy to many. Her love of her husband and family was given to us in her beautiful stories. May God hold her in the palm of His hand. A treasure in heaven. Peace to her journey and blessings to her family and friends. Miss you dear friend 🤍🙏
