“ I first met Sherri when my son brought her daughter, Jamie to meet our family at an annual reunion we have in Matthews. It was very clear to me when we met that Sherri was making sure her sweet daughter was moving in the right direction. As time passed, Sherri shared with me that she was glad that Jamie was going to be a part of my son's life. She always had such wonderful things to say about Travis and how he was such a good match for Jamie; good husband and wonderful father to our beautiful grandchildren, Kaleb and Ava. We became good friends over the past six years, sharing a love for our children and grandchildren. I will miss her hugs and "I love you" greetings as our families shared birthdays, holidays or any special occasions. On the day after her stroke, I visited Sherri and she told me that the night before that she had given her heart to the Lord and she felt His presence in the room. I knew from that moment that she was going to be in His hands, and no matter what, she will be okay. Love to you, my friend. I will miss you so much.

“ Sheri was always my girl...I baby sat for the Evans family when she was about 2 years old....she would come over to our house and stay the night with me when her mom went out of town.....I felt like she was my little girl....told her that many times but wish I could tell her once more.... God bless this precious family...what a hard time they are going through, but You are there for them to lean on....love you all and treasure my memories with Sheri....

“ While Sherri was a "distant" first cousin, on the rare occasions we had the opportunity to see her she was always loving, positive and easy going. We always looked forward seeing her and enjoyed her company.

Flying wasn't on her favorite to do list, but she overcame her fear and was able to visit us out here in Colorado on several occasions. Even more amazing, she traveled alone. Brave for anyone in today's world.

We will miss her very much, and her passing has left a void in our lives that will be hard to fill.
